

"believe what you want"

©v.c.ilagan2003 from 'I think I know' album

They look at you and they accuse you of the truth you found

They don't condone you of the way you act when I'm around

They can't accept me they say you can definitely do much better than that here You're worth better than that dear

It doesn't matter what they think
They see what we don't and we think Differently to them so we'll prove them
wrong

Believe what you want
All I know is that We got something goin' on

And so we thought they'd change their attitude just give them time We'll bite our lips, we'll force that grin and try with open minds They test our patience and it's obvious they can't appreciate what we do here And they'll never change that's clear

It doesn't matter what they think
Differently to them so we'll prove them
wrong

Believe what you want
All I know is that
We got something goin' on

They don't know us from the cloud of dust of fear

That just surrounds them
Must be awful for them

Watching this when

They condemn what they'll never understand

So we're damned by their eyes
And yet it's only them who cry

It doesn't matter what they think
Differently to them so we'll prove them
wrong

Believe what you want
All I know is that
We got something goin' on
